Loss of Introductory APR: We may end your introductory APR and apply the standard APR if you make a late payment.

Promotional/Introductory Rates and Your Grace Period: If you take advantage of an offer with an introductory or promotional APR, we will charge you interest on new Purchases, unless your new Purchases have a 0% APR, or you pay your Account balance, including any Balance Transfers and Cash Advances, in full each month by your payment due date.

OHIO RESIDENTS: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all credit worthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio civil rights commission administers compliance with this law.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.
